Holding Funds Policy

The Colorado Lions Foundation holds funds for different clubs and Multiple District 6 committees. These funds are invested to generate financial growth for the club or committee.

The Colorado Lions Foundation is following the guidelines listed below for the withdrawal of funds from these accounts.

1. The form provided by the Colorado Lions Foundation must be used to withdraw funds from holding accounts.

2. The form when completed must have proper approval signatures as indicated below. The minutes of the Board of directors or committee approving the withdrawal decision must be attached.

    a. CLUBS Current Club President and Current Club Treasurer

    b. COMMITTEE Current MD6 Council Chairman and Current MD6 Council Treasurer

3. Send the completed form to the Colorado Lions Foundation current president or current Treasurer for their signature. Funds cannot be released without the signature of either the current CLF president or treasurer.
